
Training Competencies

Training Title: Incident Command for Public Health Workers

Course Provider: MDPH and DFS

Target Audience(s) Environmental Health, Public Health Administration, Public Health Nursing, School Health

Topic

Incident Command Includes All Levels

- ☐ Define an incident command/management structure or system.
- ☐ Define modifications to the agency's internal command modification and coordination structure required for BT response.
- ☐ Describe the application and need for a unified system of command in a WMD response.
- ☐ Describe the chain of command and management system for emergency response in the jurisdiction.
- ☐ Describe the chain of command in emergency response.
- ☐ Describe the need for a unified command system among response groups.
- ☐ Integrate the agency's BT response plan into the Incident Command or Unified Command System used by other responders in the jurisdiction.
- ☐ Use the agency BT Unified Incident Command/Management Structure.

The percentages below may not total 100%. The higher the percentage, the more relevant are the competencies to a particular target audience.

100% of the competencies listed above apply to Environmental Health.

100% of the competencies listed above apply to Public Health Administration.

100% of the competencies listed above apply to Public Health Nursing.

62% of the competencies listed above apply to School Health.